Friday, no!
Thursday

Dear Anne

I am afraid

there is a spell on our visit

We are engaged to go to Haverhill next Saturday

On our account I am sorry, but on yours I am glad. For yours

pain is enough for you all to think of

& to be weary of.

After it is all over
if you are rested
if you are disposed to see us you will let us know.

I was so grieved
at not hearing
from Maria
I would have cried
like a baby as in truth I am when friends away from me

are in question

As Clarence Cook
has written lines in honor of Maria & Clara so in spite of the abuse of friends
I thought him worthy to write in the Liberty Bell, & so have asked him
But can not take them if he sends

very much you are so disposed, an enter in her

Man in I should be an interest
I may send you something - I may not - I can not forget -

Ever affately yrs

E. L. Folger
